KWS Presents: Music and Food

KITCHENER, Ontario – Edwin Outwater's acclaimed Intersections series features collisions of symphonic music with "something else". On March 4th and 5th the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony performs music which is all about food, cooking, and other delicious things! There will be new arrangements of famous songs about food, classic food music by Shostakovich, a piece by Lee Hoiby with text from Julia Child's Mastering the Art of French Cooking, and much more.

The KWS is excited to partner with Nick and Nat's Uptown 21 in this innovative concert. There will be food served during the performance, and Nat will co-host live, with Nick chiming in via video-feed straight from the kitchen.
